

Warren County Genealogical Society

406 Justice Drive
Lebanon, OH 45036

March 19, 2008 Program Announcement Warren County Genealogical Society

“Irish Genealogy” by Dave Vickers

This “free” presentation is open to the public. No reservations are necessary. Everyone is welcome!

For more information, contact the Warren County Genealogical Society

at 513 695 1144 or wccgs@co.warren.oh.us

WHEN: Wednesday, March 19th, 2008 at 7:30 PM

WHERE: Conference Room of the Campus Center at the Otterbein-Lebanon Retirement Community, 585 State Route 741, (north of State Route 63), Lebanon, Ohio.

ABOUT THE Irish Genealogy

PROGRAM: In the 2000 Census, nearly 23,000 or 14 % of Warren Countians claimed an Irish Ancestry, 2nd only to Warren Countians claiming a German heritage. They are part of the estimated 43 million American descendants of the largest imigrant group ever to enter the United States.

In honor of St. Patrick’s Day, The Warren County Genealogical Society is hosting a free presentation by Dave Vickers on How to Research your Irish Ancestors to be held at the Conference Room of the Campus Center located at the Otterbein-Lebanon Retirement Community on State Route 741, north of State Route 63. The Presentation is open to the public.

For more Information contact the Warren County Genealogical Society by phone at (513) 695 1144 or by email at wccgs@co.warren.oh.us

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Dave Vickers vickers@erinet.com

27 years professional and personal computer experience (PCs to super computers), LDS Church’s computer integration led him to genealogy, worked for last 20 years as a Family History Center Librarian. Past President and Vice-President and current newsletter editor for the Montgomery County Chapter of the Ohio Genealogical Society. Teaches beginning and intermediate genealogy at University of Dayton and at Greene County Career Center. Frequent presenter on various genealogical topics throughout the Miami Valley.

